

23 January 2015

To whom it may concern,

This serves to confirm that Jess Fogarty was employed at Caravan Publications, as a journalist on SA4x4 magazine, from 21/01/2013 to 10/10/2014.

Jess did not have much experience to speak of when she began with us, but she proved herself a quick study. Her cheerful demeanour, her willingness to give anything a go, and her eye for detail quickly saw Jess become a valued member of the editorial team.

Just before Jess left our employ we had tasked her with a difficult assignment, an expedition through a remote region of northern Namibia. She tackled this task with enthusiasm and verve, which meant that her swansong at SA4x4 magazine was the cover feature of our January 2015 issue; an article that any journalist would be proud of, and clear proof of the progress that Jess had made during her time here.

I have no doubt that Jess will succeed at whatever job she takes on, so long as it's a position which challenges and inspires her. We wish her well and have no hesitation in recommending her talents.
